A Cartoon Story of Hiroshima

Keiji Nakazawa was seven years old when the atomic bomb fell on his home town of Hiroshima. A professional cartoonist, he has devoted his life to telling the story of that terrible event as seen through the eyes of young Gen, the barefoot hero of this book.

Barefoot Gen (Hadashi no Gen) was originally serialized in a Japanese children's comic weekly and later compiled into four best-length volumes. Volumes One and Two have been translated into English by Project Gen, a group of volunteers dedicated to making Gen's story available to people around the world.

Introduction

INTRODUCTION TO THE SECOND PRINTING

Barefoot Gen (Hadashi no Gen in the original Japanese) is an autobiographical story Author Keiji Nakazawa was seven years old when the atomic bomb was dropped on his city "Gen" (pronounced with a hard g) is a Japanese name meaning "root" or "source" as the author explains:

> I wanted my main character Gen to the hope that he would become a root or source of strength for a new generation of mankind—one that can tread the charred soil of Hiroshima unscathed feel the main beneath its feet, and have the strength to say "no" to violent weapons. I myself would like to live with Gen's strength—that is my ideal, and I will continue pursuing it through my work.

Hadashi no Gen was first serialized in 1972 73 in Shukan Shonen Jumpu the largest weekly world magazine in Japan with a violence than it now two million. It was a graphic and moving account of the horrific bombing of Hiroshima and its aftermath, and drew while mechanic not only from young readers but from parents, teachers and critics as well. The original serial was anthologized in six four paperback volumes, 1 000 pages long, and later made into a critically acclaimed three-part film (An animated version is due out in late 1983.) Over the past few years author Nakazawa has expanded Gen's story beyond the original series, tracing his characters lives through the U S occupations of Japan and into the 50s. In 1980 he completed the seventh and last volume of Gen. Many there has been many numerous heated issues around Japan, relating the experiences of the A-bomb victims to citizens' groups and high school students.

The first volume of Barefoot Gen describes the days leading up to the bombing of Hiroshima—the hardships of wartime life for Japanese civilians, the militarism and hysteria perpetuated by the military government and the suffering of people like Gen's father who spoke out against the war effort. Volume One culminates in the bombing. Volume Two also available in English describes the following period of total devastation, industrial sickness and social breakdown.

Gen's story is of people dealing with an inhuman situation, both in the last days of the war and after a nuclear attack. We hope Barefoot Gen will serve as one more indictment of the suffering war brings to innocent people and as a people documentation of an especially horrible source of suffering, the atomic bomb. Though the Japanese comic book differs from English language comics in many ways as do the customs of the people I tells about, we believe that Gen is human portrayal of industries and experiences speaks to children and adults everywhere

WHAT IS PROJECT GEN?

Project Gen was formed in 1976 by a group of young people both Japanese and non-Japanese, living in Tokyo. We shared a desire to translate Mr. Nakazawa's work into other languages so that people outside Japan might hear Gen's message. As all volunteer group submitting on donations, Project Gen made its first goal the translation of the four original volumes of Hadashi no Gen into English. We published Volumes Gen (1978) and Two (1979) in Tokyo, distributing them overseas on a non-profit basis to many sympathetic groups and individuals. With this second printing (1982), Volume One is back in print for the first time in many years.

Volume One has also been published in German, and a French translation will be available soon. Due to lack of funding and volunteers, however, Project Gen's operations have been curtailed to a minimum, so the publication of Volumes Three and Four remains an uncertainty. Meanwhile we are focusing our efforts on distribution of Volume Two and this new printing of Volume One.

Project Gen would like to give special thanks to the War Resisters League in New York, Leonard Rifas of Educomics, and Barbara Reynolds of the World Friendship Center in Hiroshima for assisting in the distribution of Gen. With the help of these and many other friends and readers, we hope to keep up the work of conveying Gen's message around the world—a message of human triumph in the face of unprecedented destruction, and an urgent warning for our times as the threat of nuclear war increases.

TO THE PARENTS AND CHILDREN OF THE WORLD

February 5 1978

Japan is the first and only nation on which an atomic bomb has been dropped On an August morning in 1945 the blast took the lives of numberless adults and children Of those who survived many suddenly died later or had babies affected by radioactivity
My friend Keiji Nakazawa who is a cartoonist was in the first grade of elementary school in Hiroshima on August 6 1945 He saw a living hell His father sister and brother were burnt to death in an instant he and his mother narrowly survived That long cartoon story is based on his own experience he wrote it with the memory of what he saw before his eyes This is not just a cartoon about the atomic bomb but a story describing Japan s situation and the life of children before and after August 6 the climax of the hell they survived It is much like a long novel

It is a sad story but one filled with the courage that Gen displayed as he muddled through one hardship after another An especially impressive passage is the one in which his hopes for life are renewed by the sight of buds of green wheat pushing through the soil Japanese children who had never known war were deeply moved by Gen's struggle to live teeth clenched and face to face with death

Hadashi no Gen was serialized in a weekly magazine Shukan Shonen Jonpo, which published a little more than a million copies a week It gained an explosive popularity among kids After that Gen was published in four separate volumes more than 300 000 copies were sold It was also made into a two part film which was seen by over a tenth of the city of Hiroshima and a total of one million people throughout Japan It is still popular

Why is that so? First of all, the theme of the atomic bomb was well described in Gen. It raised people's consciousness of what an A-bomb is. Second, it is a very powerful story of human survival. Third, it shows how precious life is. And finally, the desire to abolish the A-bomb is a theme found throughout the book.

Keiji Nakazawa and a group of young people who are moved by his book, have voluntarily started "Project Gen" to deliver the voice of Gen to the children of the world. From Gen of Japan to the Gens of the world. I'd like to say. Please receive Barefoot Gen, not just as a cartoon story, but as a message with hope and an appeal — "No more Hiroshimas, no more Nagasakis". Please read it imagining that you or your children are Gen. I do hope that you will talk with your children about the terror of the A-bombs and the strength of people who survived it.

Nobody is sure that the tragedy of Hiroshima and Nagasaki 33 years ago won't be repeated in the future. Do you know how many atomic weapons exist in the world? I'd like you to think of this reality, remembering what Gen lived through. Shake hands with Gen, let your children come in touch with his spirit. The sky over Japan is the same one over the rest of the world. Japan is washed with the same waves as other countries. Gen is telling the world's children about life and the earth. I believe that they will find a new desire and the courage to make this world peaceful.

When I was strongly advised by one of my much younger friends to read the cartoon story of Hadashi no Gen, I hardly imagined I would be so greatly affected by it. I started reading it out of curiosity. I wondered how today's younger generation had been inspired by the story of a boy who was a victim of the A bomb. I wondered too what the cartoon story could do in introducing to the younger generation the important matter of the effects of the A bomb which the majority of young people today would normally never have a chance to know about. Reading the story was very easy for me once I started. I had never read comics much as a child and had never felt there was any value in reading them. But as I read on I was drawn into the story. I was moved just as my young advisor had told me that I would be. As a matter of fact I was struck by the pressing dynamism of the real feelings the cartoon pictures could produce. This book in the Japanese edition has been amazingly widely read by our younger generation by more than five million people making a deep impression. While I was reading this comic book my stereotyped idea about cartoons was changed. This type of approach, I came to feel, could be a very effective means of conveying feelings and information to a certain sector of our society.

Without some effort and good intentions to try to understand the depth of the story I imagine it will be very difficult for foreigners without cultural backgrounds similar to ours to read this English edition. I feel it might be worthwhile for anyone who looks at this book to at least know that so many young people in Japan have read it and were moved by this story of war an ugly and yet beautiful story I feel that the thing that has attracted the hearts of so many people in this book is the brightness of the human nature in the boy Gen even in the midst of tragedies

For myself who had the experience of being exposed at age thirteen to the Nagasaki A-bomb three days after Gen this book brought back memories of those days

A world economic crisis beginning in 1929 caused the western nations to establish exclusive economic policies all over the world That was a great blow to the Japanese economy and Japan losing her international market found the only solution was to stick to and expand the market in the Chinese continent Thus after creating some excuses by causing minor struggles Japan invaded Manchuria in 1931 I was born in Tokyo that same year as the third child to parents who were both second generation Christians At that time emperor worship and militarism were deeply rooted in all spheres of Japanese life Even as a child in the first grade I was aware that we Christians might be looked on as dangerous and non patriotic people because we church goers were considered loyal to a faith that was different from the state religion

I remember my parents talking one evening about the police arrest of the well-known evangelist Dr Toyohiko Kagawa while he was preaching in his church which I used to attend as a Sunday school pupil When I was in the second grade my young teacher told me in front of all of my classmates to have my hair cut to follow the line of the heroic Japanese soldiers I imagine now that there must have been an order about that from the Ministry of Education to all the schools But as a child I felt rather shocked to find for the first time that I was the only one in the class who did not have a close-cropped hair style and feeling the strong pressure of the situation soon after classes were over I went to a barber to get a haircut and psychological release

The psychological manipulation of the people through education by the state in those days was horrifying as I look back now Japanese myths were used in the history classes at school to glorify the emperor system, making Japan a nation of the Sun God, a nation selected to perform a special mission for all humanity. In those days anyone who heard the name of emperor or even the adjective "honorable" that was expected to be used before the word "emperor" would stand up straight to pay respect to the emperor. At first everyone did this because of orders at school and everywhere in society and gradually came to do this almost by reflex after repeated practice.

When World War II started I was in the fourth grade in primary school in Nagasaki. Soon Japan was exposed to the bombing of the US B 29's. By then more militaristic education had become more hysterical than ever before. Emotional lessons and spiritual training were emphasized more than any subject to my high school. School lessons were often cancelled for students to do farming, factory work and all kinds of military labor besides the military drills which were one of the most important parts of the school curriculum at that time. Physical punishment like beating and slapping was given to students on the rationalization that they were receiving a "punishment of love" in order to become "true" Japanese.

In the summer when I was in the eighth grade I was exposed to the A-bomb in Nagasaki. None of my family got killed. My mother and three of us five children were out of the city and only my father, eldest sister and I were there. The three of us were in the area which was not burned but only destroyed by the strong blast of the bomb. My sister and I were exposed to the rays only a moment as we fled into the shadow immediately. My sister and I escaped from death by a hair's breadth: the dining kitchen area where we were about to prepare lunch was later found utterly destroyed with glass panes smashed into powder all over. We had escaped from the room before the destruction occurred. I had a kind of religious experience as I lay on the floor in the dark dust rising all around which did not allow me to open my eyes for some minutes.

One third of the city was completely burned and the same proportion of the population lost their lives. I witnessed with my own eyes some of the sufferings of the victims: dead, injured and burned

I cannot forget the horrible scenes of the city in flames at night particularly the burst of the gas tanks I saw from the top of a hill I cannot stand to imagine how several of my good friends and many other people in the city must have suffered theit deaths in the fire which kept burning for three full days or more or how those who had survived the situation suffered later with burns injuries scars keloids and radiation disease I lived for more than a week in a shelter with those who had nearly half of their bodies burned by the radioactive heat A few of them died when we were in the shelter Swarms of flies infested the pus of the burned flesh with a terrible smell I was surprised to find the same phenomenon portrayed in this cartoon story

The wounded felt apologetic about staying with us with their ugliness and the smell But what else could have been done in such a situation! I felt great sympathy for them

The war ended with the unconditional surrender of Japan Gradually I came to know how I and all ordinary Japanese people had been cheated by the ruling people Those who were cheated cheated other people too Mass media education social pressure and police and military powers were all used on the people We had never been given proper information to judge what was actually going on What we were given was incorrect information in order for them to be able to justify their military policies Education had been used to promote the hatred and killing of enemies anybody who stood in the way of the goal of controlling Asia and the world The war was actually not between the Japanese people and the people of the allied nations I felt angry at those who cheated me and also at myself for having been so easily cheated

As soon as the U S Marine Corps landed I made friends with many young American soldiers We had been told before their arrival that the U S soldiers would behave badly and commit all sorts of acts of brutality on the inhabitants especially women so that children and women were advised to leave the city and go to the mountains I saw many people moving away from the city My father and mother talked about this and decided to stay on in the city so that the family might stay together no matter what might happen to us When the soldiers came and used the school building next to my house as their barracks during their stay I soon found out that the U S men were far more humane than we had imagined Of course I do not say that they all behaved well Many unhappy incidents were caused by the misbehavior of the occupying soldiers But as a whole they behaved very well for soldiers in the country of the enemy

I was just an eighth grader then, learning English at school I spoke some English to them and they were fascinated to find such a young boy could speak English however limited my vocabulary was My parents could speak better and soon our house became a place where several soldiers gathered to talk sing and eat Though at that time we suffered serious shortages of food and could not offer anything other than soup with vegetables young American men sometimes secretly brought us a variety of canned food At that time it was prohibited for U S men to eat anything in a Japanese house or to bring anything to Japanese people from their camp

My father became ill some time after the end of war with tuberculosis We do not know how directly the A bomb was related to the disease Anyway after he stayed in bed for several months or more we all moved to Mito a city about two hundred miles to the north of Tokyo leaving Nagasaki I came across Quakers for the first time in the city as my father brought my brother and me to a small meeting of Christians on a Sunday Due to the destruction of the meeting house by air raid they were having Sunday service in a small room of an old people's home run by Quakers as their social welfare program I was shocked and deeply impressed when I met a man from America who said he had been a conscientious objector during the war and came to Japan immediately after the war to help the Japanese people who were in trouble I had never heard before that there was such a thing as C O existing anywhere in the world He told us how he got into trouble with his own parents and the community around his family due to his conscientiousness and how he lost one of his kidneys cooperating in a medical experiment in which he was used as a guinea pig

As I heard him and spent some time with him I had a firm conviction that this person was showing a real way for Christians in the present society to live I was then an eleven grader I was drawn into the ways of Quakers and when I was a sophomore in a

Christian college I became a member of the Religious Society of Friends I held a firm conviction that I was a child of God rather than a Japanese and a human being rather than a member of a nation I should have more loyalty to God and humanity Because I could not concentrate my energy on study due to the necessity of earning some money and also partly due to the vague vision of what I should be doing in the near future I decided to volunteer to go to India for an international work camp to work for a year and a half Though I did not stay in India for more than fourteen months due to illness I had very precious experiences during the stay

I was exposed to people who were living in conditions of dreadful poverty and yet were living in just the same way as all human beings with joy and sorrow even as we were to Japan When I think carefully of my existence it might be considered as chance that I was born a Japanese and not an American Indian African or Russian The style of living and the material conditions as well as cultural ones are not mine by choice Some racists might think that therefore they should do their best for their own race and nation to prosper even at the expense of others when necessary I came to have a belief that all human beings are children of God and every man or woman is as precious as anybody else regardless of his or her nationality sex color and social status and when it is necessary I need to be able to behave like Jesus Christ who lived and died for the benefit of other human beings and for the glory of the divine Therefore I have to make the place where I was born and where I live a place suitable to that end

Though many people still take for granted the defence of our own country- I would like to ask seriously how it is possible and what can be defended at protected by means of arms today when such weapons as the A bomb H bomb Neutron bomb bacteriological weapons and others are created Having strong military power means wasting a lot of money controlling people by power keeping secrets from the citizens who should know what determines their destiny and exposing many lives to the danger of horrifying destruction If we are to defend democracy our life and human dignity we need to learn how to live in nonviolent ways

I would like to introduce this book to people all over the world so that as many as possible can feel how wars are disastrous things sacrificing so many people especially so many innocent children and babies We should never forget that there are such precious victims as Gen and his brother and sister not only in Japan but in all parts of the world when a war begins Wars have to be looked at through the eyes of those who are killed and suffer and lose what is precious to them

OH!
SMASH

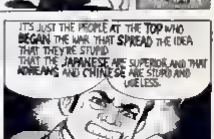
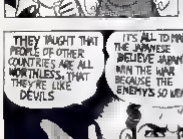
OOOO. WHAT WAS THAT FOR, PAPA!?

FOOL! DON'T MAKE FUN OF THE KOREANS!

B. BUT EVERYONE SAYS KOREANS AND CHINESE ARE STUPID
DON'T BE FOOLED



IT'S JUST THE PEOPLE AT THE TOP WHO BEGAN THE WAR THAT SPREAD THE IDEA THAT THEY'RE STUPID THAT THE JAPANESE ARE SUPERIOR, AND THAT KOREANS AND CHINESE ARE STUPID AND USELESS.



THEY TAUGHT THAT PEOPLE OF OTHER COUNTRIES ARE ALL WORTHLESS. THAT THEY'RE LIKE DEVILS
IT'S ALL TO MAKE THE JAPANESE BELIEVE JAPAN'LL WIN THE WAR BECAUSE THE ENEMY'S SO WEAK.

SO IT'S NOT TRUE THAT AMERICANS AND BRITISH ARE DEMONS, LIKE THE TEACHERS SAY!?
RIGHT.

YOU MEAN JAPAN'S NOT SACRED AND THE EMPEROR'S NOT GOD AND WE'RE NOT GOING TO RECEIVE HELP FROM THE GODS TO WIN THE WAR?
"THAT'S RIGHT."
EVEN THE SCHOOLS, NEWSPAPERS, RADIO STATIONS, POLICE AND THE ARMY OF JAPAN TODAY ARE UNDER CONTROL OF A MILITARY DICTATOR. THEY'RE TEACHING YOU LIES...
BUT DON'T BE MISGUIDED. THE ONLY WAY TO PREVENT WAR IS TO BE FRIENDS WITH THE KOREANS AND THE CHINESE.

I DON'T WANT TO BE AGAINST THE WAR LIKE YOU AND BE CALLED A TRAITOR!
YOU REALLY BELIEVE THAT SORT OF THING?
I'M GOING TO JOIN THE NAVY AND SMEAR THOSE YANKS AND LIMIES!!

DON'T YOU REMEMBER THAT YOUR COUSIN GOMICH JOINED THE NAVY? YOU KNOW WHAT HE LOOKED LIKE WHEN HE CAME BACK?
HE COULDN'T SEE HIS ARMS AND LEGS WERE TORN OFF. ALL HE COULD DO WAS BREATHE. HE WAS NO BETTER OFF THAN A ROTTED SLUG.
THE PEOPLE OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD IDOLIZED HIM AS A WAR HERO ALL THEY COULD DO WAS THOUGHTLESSLY PRAISE HIM
HIS PARENTS HAD TO WATCH THEIR ONLY SON'S PAIN EVERY DAY ON THE TINY SUM THEY GOT FROM THE GOVERNMENT THEY COULD BARELY MAKE ENDS MEET AND THEY'RE STILL GOING THROUGH HELL.
KILL ME PLEASE! KILL ME!
I'M JOINING THE NAVY I DON'T CARE IF I DIE
YOU THINK YOU CAN GO OFF TO WAR AND YOU ALONE CAN ESCAPE A BULLET
YOU MORON I DIDN'T BRING YOU UP TO BECOME A MURDERER!!

I DON'T WANT TO BE A COWARD!
IF I DIE FOR MY COUNTRY IT'LL BE FOR ALL THE JAPANESE PEOPLE. THEN I'LL BE SATISFIED!

DON'T DIE, KOJI! YOU'LL BE ALRIGHT!

DEAR GOD, PLEASE HELP OUR SON KOJI
TAKE MY LIFE IN STEAD OF HIS //

I DON'T KNOW WHY WE HAD TO GO THROUGH ALL THAT TO RAISE NOJI...
JUST SO HE COULD GO OFF AND THROW HIS LIFE AWAY IN A WAR.
THE FOOL THINKS IT TAKES COURAGE TO GO TO WAR.
I DON'T CARE ABOUT BEING CALLED A TRAITOR OR A COWARD
WHAT TAKES REAL COURAGE IS TO VALUE LIFE... YOUR OWN AND EVERYBODY'S!
NOJI. WHY ARE YOU JOINING THE NAVY WHEN PAPA DOESN'T WANT YOU TO GO?
I HAVE TO GO FOR MY OWN SAKE, AND FOR PAPA AND ALL OF YOU!
DO YOU KNOW HOW I'M TREATED AT THE FACTORY BECAUSE PAPA'S AGAINST THE WAR?

YOU TRIED TO STOP THE MUNITION PRODUCTION OF THIS FACTORY, RIGHT?
I DON'T KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT IT!
ALRIGHT IF THAT'S HOW YOU WANT IT WE'LL DO IT THE SLOW WAY
HEY, DID YOU HEAR THAT NAKAOKA CAUSED THE EXPLOSION?
THAT WAS WHEN WE HAVE TO MAKE ALL THOSE WEAPONS AND SEND THEM TO THE FRONT

DON'T TALK TO NAKAOKA
HE'S DANGEROUS, BE CAREFUL
HIS FATHER'S A TRAITOR AND HE'S A BAD ONE TOO
LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON

SO HE WENT ON BEATING ME AND INVESTIGATING ME
THOSE DIRTY SPECIAL POLICE...
AFTERWARDS THEY FOUND OUT THAT IT HAD BEEN CAUSED BY A SHORT CIRCUIT
BUT IT WAS TOO LATE I WAS ALREADY A CRIMINAL

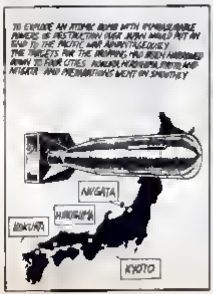
AT THAT TIME, IN THE UNITED STATES, AN AMERICA THE COMPLETION OF A MEASURE WEAPON: THE ATOMIC BOMB (NAMED THE "MANHATTAN PROJECT") WAS NEARING. FOR THREE YEARS, SCIENTISTS HAD BEEN STEPPING UP THE PACE OF THEIR RESEARCH



TO EXPLODE AN ATOMIC BOMB WITH TREMENDOUS POWERS OF DESTRUCTION OVER JAPAN WOULD PUT AN END TO THE PACIFIC WAR ADVANTAGEOUSLY. THE TARGETS FOR THE BOMBING HAD BEEN NARROWED DOWN TO FOUR CITIES: KOKURA, HIROSHIMA, NIIGATA AND KYOTO. PREPARATIONS WENT ON SWIFTLY.
NIIGATA
HIROSHIMA
KYOTO

WHEN'S THE WAR GOING TO BE OVER, GEN? WE'VE HAD ENOUGH...

UNTIL AUG. WHEN THE THREE CONTINUOUS B-29 ATTACKS, THE JAPANESE MAINLAND WAS DYED WITH BLOOD, FILLED WITH THE MOANS OF THE SUFFERING...
IN THE BATTLEFIELDS OF THE SOUTH, THE JAPANESE FORCES CONTINUED TO DIE IN AN HONORABLE FASHION. THEIR BATTLEFIELDS WERE FILLED WITH CORPSES.

PEOPLE OF JAPAN, THE BATTLE IS OVER. SURRENDER PEACEFULLY

NOOOO...
FORGIVE ME, HIROKO...
BANZAI! LONG LIVE THE EMPEROR!
WAR EDUCATION TAUGHT THE JAPANESE THAT DYING FOR THE EMPEROR WAS HONORABLE. THIS MADE IT EASIER FOR THE JAPANESE PEOPLE TO GIVE UP THEIR LIVES
SPURRED BY A FERVENT BELIEF IN THE VICTORY OF JAPAN, JAPANESE LIVES SUFFERED OVER LAND, SEA AND AIR.
"DEAD BODIES IN THE WATER ACROSS THE SEA, DEAD BODIES IN THE FIELD OVER THE MOUNTAIN, MY DEATH IS MEANT ONLY FOR THE EMPEROR. I SHALL NOT LOOK BACK AGAIN."

RISING" THE ENEMY IS DESPERATE! PREPARE FOR THE MAINLAND BATTLE! TOTAL DEFEAT TO AMERICAN DEVILS AND BRITISH FIENDS!"

THE WAR PROPAGANDA SPREAD FAST & FURTHER OVER THE RADIO AND IN THE NEWSPAPERS, WHILE HATCHING FURTHER PLANS FOR UNDING THE PEOPLE ON IT WAS THE CITIZENS WHO WERE MAKE-SURE THEY WERE THE ONES WHO HAD TO BURY AND MOURN IT WAS THEIR LIVES THAT WERE EROSED TO BOMBS EACH AND EVERY DAY

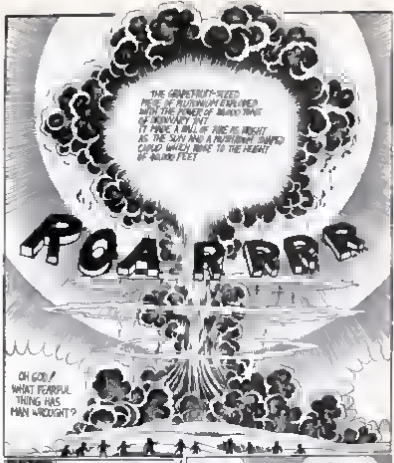
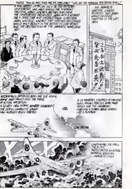
R-R-RUMBLE



THE GRAVITATIONALLY-SEIZED MASS OF PLUTONIUM EXPLODED WITH THE POWER OF 20,000 TONS OF DYNAMITE BUT IT MADE A BALL OF FIRE AS BRIGHT AS THE SUN AND A MUSHROOM CLOUD CURLED WIDELY UP TO THE HEIGHT OF 40,000 FEET
ROAR'RRR
OH GOD! WHAT FEARFUL THING HAS MAN WROUGHT?
THE 40 FOOT STEEL TOWER WAS DESTROYED LEAVING ALMOST NO TRACE AND THE SCIENTISTS WERE DELIGHTED WITH THE GREATER THAN EXPECTED EXPLOSIVE POWER.
THIS MEANS THE END OF THE WAR.
YEAH, AFTER WE DROP TWO ON JAPAN



POSTER: "NOW WE MUST FIGHT FOR THE HOMELAND!" "WIPE OUT THE AMERICAN AND BRITISH DEVILS!"
A FEW WEEKS LATER, ON JULY 26 THE POTSDAM CONFERENCE WAS HELD AMONG THE 3 NATIONS FIGHTING JAPAN, AMERICA, BRITAIN AND CHINA. THE CONFERENCE PRESENTED JAPAN WITH A DEMAND FOR A CEASE FIRE AND UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER. JAPAN WAS ALSO WARNED THAT FURTHER RESISTANCE WOULD ONLY RESULT IN THE DEFEAT OF HER ARMIES AND THE DESTRUCTION OF THE JAPANESE HOMELAND. BUT THE JAPANESE WARTIME LEADERS RETORTED THAT JAPAN WOULD CONTINUE FIGHTING TO THE LAST MAN 撃滅鬼畜米英!!
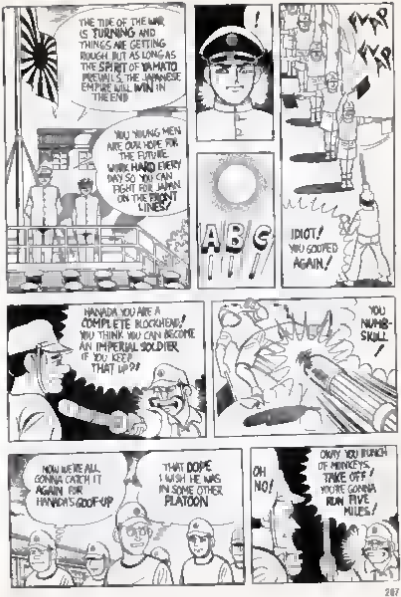
さあ本土決戦!!
ACCORDINGLY, AMERICA'S PLAN FOR THE ATOMIC BOMB NOW MOVED INTO THE PHASE OF ACTUAL OPERATION. A SECRET NEW ATOMIC BOMBER SQUADRON!! THE 509TH COMPOSITE GROUP HAD ALREADY BEEN FORMED
USA
B-29 BOMBERS, STRIPPED OF MACHINE GUNS, BEGAN PRACTICE RUNS OVER MEXICO AND THE CARIBBEAN CARRYING A DUMMY BOMB SHAPED LIKE A PUMPKIN
CARIBBEAN
CONTINUING THE DRILL, THE B-29'S PARTICIPATED IN ACTUAL BOMBING RAIDS ON JAPANESE CITIES.



THE TIDE OF THE WAR IS TURNING AND THINGS ARE GETTING ROUGH BUT AS LONG AS THE SPIRIT OF YAMATO PREVAILS, THE JAPANESE EMPIRE WILL WIN IN THE END!
YOU YOUNG MEN ARE OUR HOPE FOR THE FUTURE. WORK HARD EVERY DAY SO YOU CAN FIGHT FOR JAPAN ON THE FRONT LINES!
